3. Issue Severity Level Definitions

Severity level indicates the relative impact of an issue on Client systems or business processes that are related only to Usherwood’s technology and provided products. Usherwood uses the following severity level definitions to classify all support requests:

Severity 1 (Critical)* <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ A mission critical supported product or service is down, and no workaround is immediately available. ○ The supported production system is down or unavailable. ○ A crucial supported component is not functioning, resulting in the halt of all operations and critical business impact.
Severity 2 (High) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ An end-user is unable to use an entire critical component or business-critical feature as described in the documentation and the issue affects a significant number of end-users. ○ A significant performance degradation of the Client’s technical services due to supported components that causes a high impact on business operations for a significant number of end-users.
Severity 3 (Normal/Limited Functionality) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Client can use the solution; however, there is a non-critical loss of functionality. ○ Issue affects some, but not all the end users. ○ Functionality of some components is impaired but allows the users to continue using the solution. ○ Issue is not always reproducible, or the issue is intermittent. ○ Issue is reported in a non-production environment and does not impact the delivery of service in production environment.

*Regarding Severity 1 issues, once the issue is stabilized or a workaround is made available, the issue becomes Severity 3 (Normal). Issue should be reproducible at the moment of ticket creation so investigation can be performed right after the issue is reported. If you are unreachable over the phone or email, the severity level can be reduced to 3 (Normal) by the decision of Usherwood support management. Regarding severity 1 & 2 cases, if any help from Usherwood's engineering team is required, it will be provided during Usherwood business hours only.
